PRESIDENT TO TAKE A REST

Historic New Year's Reception Will Not Be Observed At White House

Washington, Nov. 23.—There will be no New Year's reception at the White House. President Wilson announced that during the holiday recess of congress he would take a ten days vacation.

The White House New Year's reception is a historic institution in Washington. It has been custom for the president to receive congressmen army and navy officers, the diplomatic corps and all official Washington, according to rank, and then shake hands with citizens.

The White House issued this statement:

"The usual New Year's reception will not be held on January 1, 1914. The departure from custom on this occasion is due to the fact that the president will not be in Washington at that time. Owing to the long session of congress, the president has had no vacation since his inauguration. As the approaching session of congress will be the long session, the only opportunity for the president to secure a rest will be during the usual holiday recess of congress."

No predictions were made by the White House officials as to what the president would do for succeeding New Year's days of his administration, but it is known that Mr. Wilson is opposed to the physical ordeal of shaking hands with thousands.

AGED NEWSGIRL HAS $50,000

"Grandma Jones" Pays Taxes, Then Resumes Selling Papers

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 22.—"Grandma Jones," who for 20 years has sold newspapers on the streets of Los Angeles, wearing an old brown shawl and sunbonnet that have made her a familiar figure, paid taxes on property in Los Angeles county that is valued at $50,000.

The aged woman, whose exact years are unknown, arrived at the tax office early. An ancient black purse contained a roll of bills which she distributed as she wandered from window to window. She paid taxes on several lots at the Harbor and Long Beach and newly opened sections.

She passed almost the entire morning in the tax collector's office. When the last bill was paid she limped out of the hall of records. At the entrance was a bundle of afternoon papers she had left on the sidewalk. Her first customer was Tax collector Welch, who was just entering the building.

YOUNG OREGONIAN SEEKS BRIDE OF DAY; ALSO HIS MONEY

Salt Lake City, Nov. 22.—Dryden Baker, married Wednesday, without money, wife or clothes Thursday morning, told Salt Lake police Thursday just what he thought of brides secured through matrimonial bureaus. Baker is a fairly well to do Oregon fisherman living not far from Portland. He wrote last May to a marriage bureau, he says and was referred to Miss Daisy West of Salt Lake.

Correspondence continued until Baker came to Salt Lake last Sunday to marry his intended. He was married Wednesday afternoon by Deputy County Clerk J. U. Eldredge Sr., according to the story which he later told the police.

Baker had been staying at the Peery hotel and had deposited most of his money with the clerk at that hostelry. After the ceremony they started toward the Peery hotel, but she did not want to go there as some one was staying there whom she did not wish to meet. So they changed their destination to the Realty hotel, 225 1-2 South West Temple.

Baker told the police early this morning that when he woke up his wife was gone and also $25 which had been in his trousers. He hurried to the Peery hotel. There, he found, he told the police, that a woman had presented an order for his money on deposit with the clerk and for admission to his room. He declared that $61 which he had on deposit was taken and also his suit case containing all his belongings save the clothes he wore.

Baker rushed to the police station and begged the local force to assist him in finding his clothes, his money and his wife.

SLAYER HOLDS DYING VICTIM IN HIS ARMS

Story of Killing of Cramer By Dr. Elam Gradually Coming To Light

Kansas City, Nov. 21.—Like the installments of a serial story, the killing of W. Putnam Cramer of Chicago by Dr. William T. Elam, the wealthy St. Joseph, Mo., physician is becoming known a chapter at a time. Through an attorney Dr. Elam told how he held Cramer in his arms after the fatal shot had been fired.

These are the details of what occurred after the shooting as told by the attorney.

"Dr. Elam dropped the revolver. Cramer with a bullet through his heart, crumpled up in his chair. Elam caught the dying man and held him in his arms. He opened his clothing to examine the wound. There was a little bloodstain on Cramer's shirt and a small cut in his breast. The physician saw there was no hope. He laid his victim on the floor and left the room."

"There will be a time for the facts of the case to come out," said Dr. Elam. "Some of the features in connection with it are known only to myself and my attorneys give me permission I may make a statement owing these points."

Dr. Elam has lost much of the moroseness into which he was plunged immediately after the shooting. He greeted visitors today with a smile and spoke repeatedly of their kindness in coming to see him.

The doctor has become a favorite with his jailer and the other prisoners. He is allowed every privilege possible. Most of his time is occupied in receiving visitors and answering long distance telephone calls.

CINCINNATI HOTELS ARE HIT

Two Widely Known Places Are Denied Licenses For Bars

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 22.—About 700 bars are closed by order of the Hamilton county excise commissioners.

Perhaps the most astonishing development is the rejection of the application of the Hotel Metropole. This was probably because it was a recent business venture.

A widely known place refused a license is the establishment of Erwin Kamp on East Sixth street. Hotel Sterling, which has not featured its bar for some time, also was rejected. Jacob Pitner has been put out of business. Mrs. M. O. Schwind who has a cafe and bar, and Mrs. Louisa Fasse, with a bar attached to a candy store, were both refused a license. Harry Vaughn, the old ball player is put out of business. So also are H. Wuebben, former politician; John E. O'Connell and G. P. Perrano.

SAYS CHICKENS FLEW UNDER HIS COAT TO GET WARM

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22.—"Where did those chickens come from?" Inquired Policeman Carmody when loud squawks came from under John Brown's coat.

Brown blinked at the officer and said "That beats me," then he smiled and said: "They flew under there to get warm. You see it is getting pretty cold."

Then Carmody took Brown to the station. Brown told judge he bought the chickens. He was fined $2 for being intoxicated on the streets.
